

My Jungle Quilt

As the African sun appears in the sky,

The jungle awakes for the day.

Monkey, Leopard and Elephant Joe

Are up and ready to play.

So cuddle up close, in your warm soft quilt.

Your busy day is done.

And read about our jungle friends,

Who play in the hot, hot sun.

Once upon a time,
Long ago, long ago,
There lived a baby elephant
Named Jolly Jumbo Joe.

His ears were large and flappy,
His trunk was awfully long.
He liked to throw the red dirt
And make a trumpet song.

Hello, Joe!

Merry monkey, friend of Joe,
In the branches to and fro,
Jumping,
Swinging,
Having fun—

Watch out Joe,
Here I come!

Merry monkey.
